

KENTUCKY DISTILLERS' ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT - JOB DESCRIPTION

SUMMARY

The Kentucky Distillers' Association, a 138-year-old organization that promotes, protects and elevates the Commonwealth's signature Bourbon and distilled spirits industry, is seeking an Executive Assistant to the President. This position will support the President and the KDA staff by overseeing the day-to-day operations of the Association.

The ideal candidate will be experienced in handling a wide range of administrative and executive support duties with little or no supervision. This person must be exceedingly well-organized, be able to manage multiple priorities simultaneously, follow through on issues in a timely manner and work effectively under tight deadlines. The position requires excellent judgment and discretion with confidential and sensitive information and a high level of professionalism.

MUST HAVE:

- A four-year college degree
- Excellent communications skills
- Strong organizational skills
- Strong computer skills, including experience in QuickBooks, Google Drive and Microsoft Office (Outlook, Word, PowerPoint, Excel and Publisher)
- Positive attitude and attention to detail

STRONGLY PREFER:

- Knowledge of QuickBooks, budget, planning and financial and accounting tasks
- Experience in office management, organization and customer service
- Experience in marketing, tourism, public relations and research
- Experience in the distilled spirits industry

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Tasks will vary and will include:

- Oversee financial and accounting tasks, including bills, invoices, receipts, reimbursable expenses and other related paperwork. Work directly with CPA to create quarterly and annual financial reports and tax statements.
