

Welcome

The Kentucky Distillers' Association was founded in 1880 to unite the Commonwealth's signature Bourbon and distilled spirits industry, promote our history and craftsmanship around the world and protect its enduring spirit from those who would do it harm.

Today, our venerable non-profit group encompasses the overwhelming majority of Kentucky's finest distilling companies, from legendary brands and renowned global icons to emerging distillers that are building the next generation of our timeless craft.

All have one common goal: to be part of a distilling family committed to securing the integrity of our industry and strengthening Kentucky's rightful place as the one, true and authentic home for Bourbon.

But to be clear: we're not just about Bourbon. Our members include brandy distilleries, moonshine companies and diverse brands such as rum, gin, vodka and single malt whiskies. All champion tradition and embrace innovation.

We have achieved much by working together. But we have more work to do to modernize Kentucky's archaic alcohol laws, level the playing field with the beer and wine sectors, and elevate and protect Kentucky's booming $8.6 billion distilled spirits industry.

We've been waiting for you since 1880.

Here is why you should join our ranks.
